NBA great LeBron James' palatial 16,678-square-foot Miami waterfront estate in Coconut Grove truly befits a basketball king. With coveted views of Biscayne Bay, and at an asking price of $17 million, the spectacular 6-bedroom, 8-and-one-half bath contemporary compound is created with luxurious interiors that include a chef's kitchen, a dream sommelier's wine cellar, a custom-designed theater, guest home and a private rooftop sundeck just off the master bedroom suite. Glass doors that open to covered terraces throughout the home bring a taste of South Florida's lush tropical foliage inside. The residence is walled for privacy and equipped with a state-of-the-art security system.

Outdoors, guests dine and revel in style. A summer kitchen and an expansive 4,500 square feet of entertainment space add to the lavish experience. Take a refreshing dip in the infinity-edge pool or sail around the bay ... the dock is outfitted with enough space for two 60-foot yachts.
