

LEFT: The radiant Alcor "Consolle," designed by Antonio Citterio, is a Far East-inspired piece that blends traditional and modern. Lacquered in a black or red finish, it's offered in a four-drawer design with two size options.

MAXALTO MIAMI

Maxalto, In Partnership With Design 4141, Unveils Its Luxury Collection In The Heart Of Miami's Design District

TEXT Susan Sherman | PHOTOGRAPHY Courtesy of 4141 Design, Miami, FL

Maxalto Store Miami, in collaboration with 4141 Design, celebrated the grand opening of its new showroom in the Miami Design District during Design Miami and Art Basel, two of the city's most renowned global design and art showcases. Maxalto, best known for creating elegant spaces that are portrayed through sophisticated furnishings for the living, dining and bedroom areas, unveiled its timeless, "modern classic" collection created by Antonio Citterio. The new sofa system Dives, also designed by Citterio, debuted with the Alcor and Convivium lines that feature storage solutions and consoles, and the contemporary "Recipio" dining table, offered in several varieties of oak. 305/572-2900; www.maxaltomiami.com◆