THIS&THAT

GLAMOUR GIRL

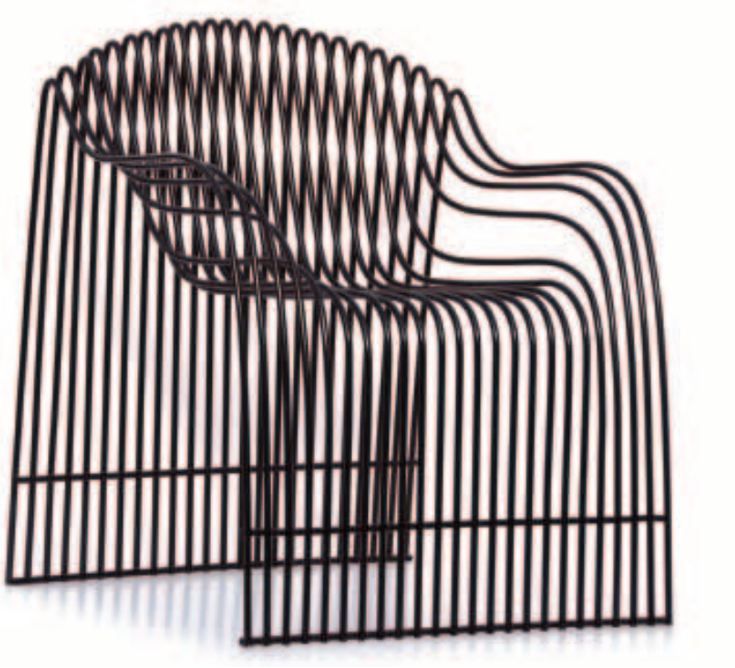

The Rug Company's "Glamour Girl," a classic from fashion designer LuLu Guinness, is a playful area rug created with a blend of retro glam and modern chic. A decadent, raised silk pile and soft Tibetan wool background with sensuously shaped edges celebrates femininity, while elegantly crafted, sinuous black lines outline a kitschy portrait that is finished with fuschia red lips. 305/576-9868

ON THE BALL

B&B Italia's "UPJ Chair," the junior version of designer Gaetano Pesce's iconic polyurethane foam seating, is identical to the original except for its diminutive scale. The whimsical ball and chain chair, comfortable and bright in red, adds a designer's touch to any children's space. On display worldwide in its flagship stores for the holidays. 305/448-7367

continued on 34

THIS&THAT

continued from 32

A MESMERIZING SEAT

Debuted at the London Design Festival, London-based designer Julian Mayor's sculptural chair, "Contour," is an hypnotic piece that at first glance appears to undulate. Comprised of contoured steel bands that ensure stability and strength, it lends a delicate and lightweight appearance. 44 (0) 7775 51600 5

FASHION WEEK

Mercedes Benz Fashion Week in New York City is home to the world's most influential fashion designers and emerging design talent. This past September, the runway sizzled with fashions from the top designers Spring 2015 collections, including glamorous dresses from designer Reem Acra, below. Photography by Marcus Tondo. www.mbfashionweek.com

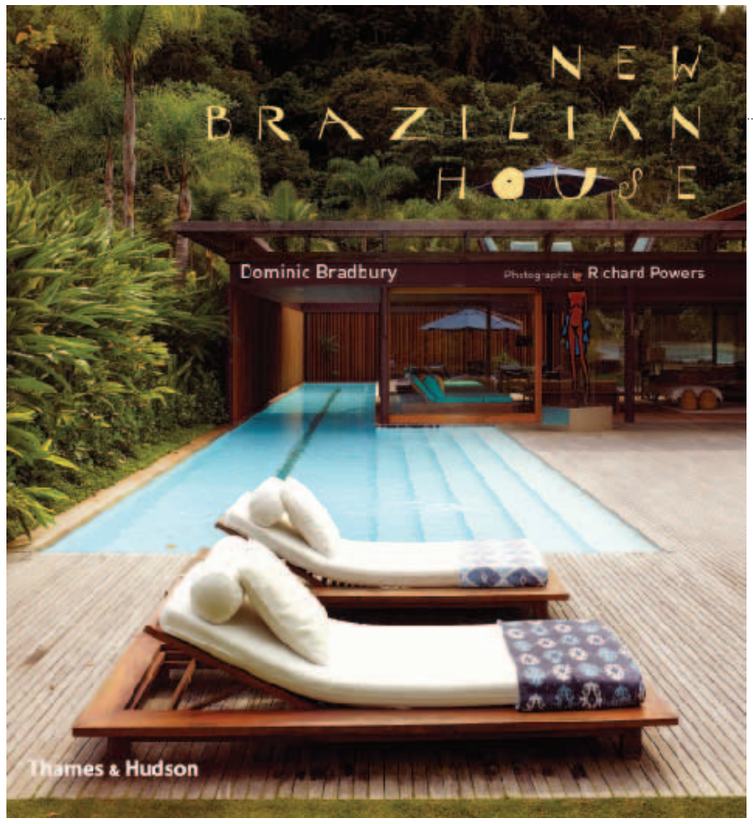

MIAMI WORLDCENTER MALL

Miami Worldcenter, a world-class, mixed-use planned development, announced Phase One, The Mall at Miami Worldcenter, set to open in late 2016. The Forbes Company and Taubman have partnered to develop 765,000 square feet of retail, dining and entertainment space, anchored by a 120,000-square-foot Bloomingdale's and a Macy's at 195,000 square feet. www.miamiworldcenter.com

continued on 36

THIS&THAT

continued from 34

BRAZILIAN STYLE

In the New Brazilian House, engaging text by Dominic Bradbury and stunning photography by Richard Powers showcase projects from Brazilian visionaries such as Marcos Acayaba and Pritzker Prize-winning architect Paulo Mendes da Rocha. From São Paulo and Rio to the coastal towns of Paraty and Ilhabela, from city homes to country retreats and seaside escapes, these pages reflect the vitality of Brazil's architecture and design today. Cover courtesy of Thames & Hudson. 212/354-3763

ARTEFACTO DESIGN HOUSE

Artefacto's 4th annual Design House, called "The Lady of the House," runs through September 2015. Internationally acclaimed interior designers, handpicked by owner Paulo Bacchi, will pair with 10 of the most influential women in Miami. Bacchi, a longtime philanthropist, donated $50,000 to each of their chairities. Striking collaborative vignettes showcase this year's best in space design, along with Artefacto's new collection, Warm Metals, in their 20,000-square-foot Coral Gables showroom. 305/774-0004

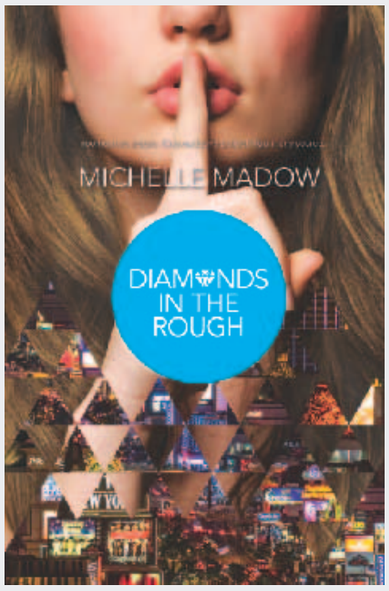

LIKE VELVET

From Internum Miami, the "Poltrona" armchair from Baxter's Tactile collection designed by Vincenzo De Cotiis, is clad in saffron Nabuck leather that feels soft and sensual, like velvet. Warmth and comfort define this stylish signature piece that is available in a wide array of colors. 305/576-1135

continued on 38

MICHELLE MADOW

Young adult author Michelle Madow celebrated the release of Diamonds in the Rough, the next book in her successful series, The Secret Diamond Sisters, from Harlequin Teen, which was inspired by her favorite hotel in Las Vegas. A tireless promoter of her work, Florida Design's former intern recently toured America to promote her books and encourage students to read. www.michellemadow.com.

THIS&THAT

continued from 36

THE BASS MUSEUM/MARINO

The Bass Museum of Art's "One Way," an exhibition by renowned architect Peter Marino, runs through March 29, 2015, and features contextual installations by Gregor Hildebrandt, Guy Limone and Jean-Michel Othoniel, whose Black Rosaries, above, is created with mirrored blown-glass, glass beads and metal. Courtesy of Jean-Michel Othoniel; photography by Philippe Chancel. 305/673-7530

DESIGN THAT ROCKS

Designer Mario Milana melds artistry and functionality in his first collection of Italian handmade furnishings launched in April 2014 at Salone del Mobile. "Rulla," right, is a unique, handcrafted iron-framed rocking chair fashioned with a Polyurethane foam seat, a backrest upholstered in natural leather and a headrest crafted with leather rings. www.mariomilana.com