A 60,000-square-foot amenity deck with stunning views of the Atlantic Ocean features three pools, each with its own signature lounge chairs cushioned in hues of bright yellow, soft gray, white and aqua.

BOCA BEACH CLUB

Elegant And Sleek, A Luxurious Oceanfront Resort Melds European Sensibility With South Florida Beach Chic

TEXT Susan Sherman
PHOTOGRAPHY Courtesy of Boca Beach Club, a Waldorf Astoria Resort

A luxurious, private beachfront escape, the Boca Beach Club is a contemporary oasis set amid lush tropical greenery and a half-mile stretch of an idyllic white-sandy beach. Now part of the Waldorf Astoria chain of hotels, a $120 million renovation refashioned this quintessential beach resort with a fresh, modern interpretation of European elegance. Celebrated for its lavish amenities, it's a premier destination on Florida's East Coast.

. . . continued on page 302

LEFT: The Ocean Bar opens onto a raised terrace that overlooks the main pool and provides a perfect seat to view the sea while enjoying cocktails and light fare.

RIGHT: Just steps away from the water's edge at the Beaches Restaurant & Bar, soft tropical breezes coupled with a savory light menu are a welcome treat after a game of tennis, a round of golf or a refreshing dip in the pool.

A Dramatic Infinity Pool That Overlooks
The Beach Oasis Flows Through A Reception Area That Melds Airy Indoor Spaces With The Ocean's Brilliant Horizon.

. . . continued from page 301

Created by London-based interior designer Fiona Thompson of Richmond International, the resort features a main hall that overlooks the ocean with an enclave of 212 well-appointed guest rooms and spacious suites with sophisticated interiors in subtle tones of charcoal gray and white. Floor-to-ceiling windows offer unobstructed views of the shimmering Intracoastal Waterway and the majestic Atlantic Ocean.

Dine in or al fresco at more than 10 restaurants at the Beach Club and at the main Boca Raton Resort & Club, where a wide variety of culinary delights ranging from the freshest seafood and acclaimed international specialties, to causal, light fare are featured.

. . . continued on page 304

LEFT: Sleek and sophisticated, a sofa and accent pillows in the dramatic reception area are clad in blue and green tones and grounded by a boldly hued area rug. Shiny glass-tiled walls add sparkle.

. . . continued from page 304

Within the tranquility of warm sea breezes, abundant amenities entice guests to relax in one of the Beach Club's three sparkling outdoor pools or to luxuriate in the main resort's award-winning Spa Palazzo that offers a range of treatments and is inspired by the legendary Alhambra Palace in Spain. The beach club experience is further enhanced by two pro-golf courses, three state-of-the-art fitness centers, a world-ranked tennis program, private pool-side cabanas with personal butlers and water sports at the private marina. The Beach Club's Dunes Ballroom is the perfect venue for wedding receptions and special events.

A lavish playground with unparalleled services, a visit to the Boca Beach Club is the ultimate indulgence for connoisseurs of luxury and relaxed elegance. For additional information, please call 561/447-3000.◆