ABOVE: Interior designer Michael Dawkins, is a master at bringing interior spaces to life.

An entrepreneur and distinguished tastemaker for more than 20 years, Michael Dawkins creates design solutions that cater to the discerning homeowner and residential designer fusing genres, styles and textures to create his timeless, signature style. His interior design studio, Michael Dawkins Home, boasts two 10,000-square-foot showrooms, one in Miami's Design District and the other on New York City's Designer's Way. Each features exclusive collections of outdoor and indoor furnishings that include seating, tables, upholstery and artwork. A love for travel and a passion for luxurious, livable design have shaped Dawkins warm and eclectic pieces. ABOVE: To maximize a narrow dining space, Michael Dawkins custom-designed a solid marble combination dining table that accommodates both dining and counter-height seating. The table is juxtaposed near sliding glass doors, where residents and their guests can enjoy the stunning tropical views from an outdoor patio.
